NEWS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GEARING UP FOR DAY FIVE AT THE EX!!

The Saskatoon EX will open at noon today for Day Five of the annual exhibition. Attendance on Friday was 41,349 and after 4 days is 135,836.

PrairieLand Park CEO, Mark Regier comments, "Yesterday was a fantastic day with perfect weather and great entertainment, contributing to an all time attendance record for a Friday."

Children of all ages are amazed to see the T-Rex and Triceratops skulls, as well as interact with the live 50 lb. tortoise, and the 6.5' long Pine Snake at the Little Ray's Reptile Show and Exhibit in Hall E.

1768 people enjoyed the second night of the chuckwagon meet, and Gary Gorst is leading the competition. He's racing to maintain that position as they hook up again tonight at 6:30 p.m. Results are available at www.cpcaracing.com.

The forecast looks great for the next two days...see you at the EX. Gates open at 12 noon.
